THEIR JOY IS OUR REWARD

2019 News Letter / Project funding / Financial Report

Words from the president.

Team work is the key to success! "Lets go 2020"

Thank you for this years support what a great season over 700 kids and families served.

And our great new Robert Orlando Golf fundraising efforts Reggie Powell & Anna-Maria Orlando.

We also teamed up with Joel Brown and the United Methodist Men's Group fish fry fundraiser.

We love our Sponsors, Supporters and Members.

Hello to all and thank you so much helping us serve the great kids and families in our community. It's our heart felt passion to serve our youth special needs under-privileged, kids here in Fairfield Solano County and surrounding communities. We have had 13 great years of community service and many happy joy filled kids and families at the events. With your continued support and funding we can bring many more years of joy and love to our youth.

Cant say enough for our event co-hosts and service groups. The Fairfield Kiwanis Club, Kiwanis Club of Greater Napa and Travis AFB Force 60th Services and Youth Programs Top Notch folks and supporters Thank you so much.

LOVE - KINDNESS - CARING - FAMILY - COMMUNITY True Service from the heart

This truly makes are community if Fairfield and Solano county so great and strong empowering our youth to success

This season we had three events The Robert Orlando Kids Fishing Derby and Fairfield's Earth Day Celebration

Travis AFB Kids Fishing Derby and Kids Day of Fishing Lake Solano Park in Winters in loving memory of Ted Lewis.

All events were a great success filled with family joy happiness and a loving community full of energy and empowerment for the better of our youth. Thank you all that volunteered your time and efforts achieving our goals of service.

Along with our three 2020 projects and events we will be hosting the 2nd annual Robert Orlando Golf Tournament Fundraiser it was a great success last season but with your help and added golfers we can make it a HUGE fundraising yearly project for the program. Special thanks to all the golfers and corporate supporters you were great!
